At First National Bank of Michigan, we value you, your business and the community we're proud to serve. Since our inception in 2006, we've delivered exceptional financial solutions by working together with our customers to build personal, lasting relationships. No matter your challenges or concerns, we will always make the time to understand them, guiding you through the borrowing process and beyond. We take pride in being your community bank. What does this mean? It means deposits stay right here in Michigan to fund loans, and decisions are made locally by experienced bankers who are dedicated to helping people like you - and business like yours - thrive.

Together, We are First.
