

FIRST NATIONAL BANK of Michigan

Jesse Prins
Vice President, Commercial Banking

With a degree in finance and more than 16 years of banking experience, Jesse helps clients seize opportunities in order to achieve the long term goals they desire. With a broad background in lending, Jesse has worked with a diverse client base ranging from non-profits to small business owners to large corporations and is able to offer focused financial products and services to businesses in Holland.

Jesse graduated from Grand Valley State University with a Bachelor of Science: Business Administration with majors in Finance and Management. Jesse's commitment to building better communities and relationships is evident by his dedication as a board member to Heritage Homes, Inc., a non-profit agency that serves the housing needs of adults with developmental disabilities. Jesse is also an ambassador of the West Coast Chamber and serves on the West Coast Chamber Ambassador Leadership team.

At First National Bank of Michigan, we value you, your business and the community we're proud to serve. Since our inception in 2006, we've delivered exceptional financial solutions by working together with our customers to build personal, lasting relationships. No matter your challenges or concerns, we will always make the time to understand them, guiding you through the borrowing process and beyond. We take pride in being your community bank. What does this mean? It means deposits stay right here in Michigan to fund loans, and decisions are made locally by experienced bankers who are dedicated to helping people like you - and business like yours - thrive

Together, We are First.
